

Carson Peters & Iron Mountain EPK

FULL BIO:

Carson Peters and Iron Mountain has quickly become one of the most energetic and hottest bands in the business, making numerous trips to the Grand Ole Opry, multiple international appearances, and having countless songs on the bluegrass and bluegrass gospel charts. Their traditional style and A Cappella arrangements are a refreshing reminder that the bluegrass of old is alive and well. The band is made up of Carson and Jamie Peters, a father and son duo from Piney Flats, TN, along with another father and son pair in Ben and Eric Marshall, from Mount Airy, NC, Austin Tate, from Marion, VA, and James McDowell, from Hendersonville, NC. In 2023, Carson and the band signed with Billy Blue Records, releasing their latest project, "Gotta Lotta Lonesome" under the esteemed bluegrass label. The boys give God all the glory for allowing them to accomplish what they have so far, and trust His plan to guide them through the future.
